

Biography

Warren Rosewarne has been employed by Raytheon Australia as Chief Financial Officer for more than 10 years. In this role Warren is responsible for statutory and regulatory matters concerning the company as well as providing financial guidance and advice to the board of directors and executive leadership team.

As a member of Raytheon Australia's Board of Directors and leadership team he contributes to the development of goals and strategies designed to achieve performance excellence; establish an effective internal control environment; provide value to customers; realise growth potential and provide a reasonable return to shareholders.

Warren's functional responsibilities include; Financial Planning & Analysis, Program Controls & Operations, Earned Value Management, Accounting, Taxation, Treasury, Estimating & Pricing, Financial Systems, Internal Controls & Audit and Shared Services.

Prior to joining Raytheon Warren held a number of positions as CFO in engineering, construction and service industries. Warren has more than 15 years experience in the Defence Industry.

Warren holds a Bachelor of Business (Accounting) from the University of Technology, Sydney and is a member and fellow of CPA Australia (FCPA). He is also a graduate of the Australian Defence Industry Study Course.